

Ruth Engelbrecht Memorial Scholarship

Sponsored by Onondaga Audubon Society

Scholarship Application for Sharing Nature: An Educator's Week
Hog Island, Maine July 15-20, 2018

Part I

Name of Applicant _____ Email _____

Home Address _____

Home phone _____ Work Phone _____

School/Nature Center _____

School/Nature Center Address _____

Subject(s) taught _____

Grade(s) taught _____ How many students do you teach each day? _____ Each week? _____

Part II

In what ways do you anticipate that attending this educator's workshop will help you as a teacher and be of benefit to the students you teach? (Attach a separate piece of paper if necessary). _____

Part III

To assist us with our educational outreach efforts, please answer the following questions.

Please describe your current level of birding skill. _____

Have you ever counted birds for citizen-science projects or programs? _____ If so, please explain. _____

Have you ever used nature education in your classroom and, if so, how? _____

How did you hear about this scholarship? _____

Are you familiar with Onondaga Audubon and have you ever attended any of its programs? If yes, please indicate which program. _____

Would you be willing to attend an Audubon meeting after the workshop to share what you've learned? _____

Please send your application to:

Alison Kocek

Onondaga Audubon Society – PO Box 620, Syracuse, NY 13152

onondagaaudubonpresident@gmail.com

Deadline for submission of application is March 1, 2018